

LAUREL PRICE

laurel.price122@gmail.com

WORK EXPERIENCE

December 2022-present

Scribble Art Workshop

Art Teacher (Brooklyn, NY and New York, NY)

- Instruct after-school art classes in partnering schools
- Instruct full-day art workshops and camps during school breaks
- Create lesson plans and implement long-term art projects for Early Childhood-7th grade classes
- Organize class materials and maintain storage for student work
- Substitute teach for art classes across grade levels as needed, demonstrating adaptability and flexibility

November 2019-April 2021

Wythe Hotel

Front Desk Agent (Brooklyn, NY)

- Ensured the satisfaction of hotel guests through check-in and acted as hotel concierge, connecting guests with the larger Brooklyn community
- Participated as a member of the Peer Council for Wythe Work Culture, contributing to discussions on antiracism advocacy and equitable work culture

December 2017-September 2019

Children's Manager

McNally Jackson Books (Brooklyn, NY)

- Managed and curated the Children's Books Section, leading tri-weekly Story Times and book groups
- Curated and bought toys for children's sections in Brooklyn and Manhattan store locations
- Developed, organized, and hosted children's book events and related events, including Drink and Draw with Illustrators event series
- Led book buying, selection, and curation, showcasing a keen eye for visual design and an understanding of children's literature

May 2015-December 2017

Bookseller

McNally Jackson Books (New York, NY)

- Engaged customers through personalized book recommendations, demonstrating effective communication and customer service skills

EDUCATION

2016-2017

The New School, Parsons

G.P.A.: 3.27 towards AAS in Fashion Design

Completed Coursework: Construction II, Color Theory, Fashion History

2011-2015

Purchase College, SUNY - Bachelor of Arts, Cum Laude

Double Major: Creative Writing and Literature